

Effect of One Bottle.

Crandall, Tex.—"After my last spell of sickness," writes Mrs. Belle Teal, of this city, "I remained very ill, and stayed in bed for eight weeks. I couldn't get up, all this time, and though my doctor came to see me every day, he didn't do me any good. I had taken but one bottle of Cardui, when I was up, going everywhere, and soon I was doing all my housework." Cardui helps when other medicines have failed, because it contains ingredients not found in any other medicine. Pure, safe, reliable, gentle-acting—Cardui is the ideal medicinal tonic for weak, sick women. Try it.

SCHOOL TEACHERS

You can greatly increase your salary by qualifying to teach Stenotypy. The Stenotypy takes dictation supplanting shorthand. Hundreds of the best business colleges will want teachers by early fall. Less than fifty teachers are now available. Stenotypy, typewriting, and English correspondence will qualify you to earn from fifty to one hundred dollars a month. The demand is here. Write for full particulars and special offer to teachers who enroll this spring. Act to-day.

"Kentuckian"

A virile, newsy newspaper with the interest of the entire community at heart. Issues of the day are handled without fear or favor. You will find in this paper an up-to-date department for each member of the family. Clean, honest, straightforward—it is a paper you cannot do without.

Second—

Technical World Magazine

Is the one magazine that not only entertains in a fascinating manner, but which also instructs. It is the magazine for the busy business man, or for the person who wants to tell away a summer's afternoon, and be agreeably informed at the same time. It is profusely illustrated, and tells in a simple and interesting way of the discoveries of scientists, the achievements of inventors, the facts of engineers and explorers, and the opening of every new field of human endeavor. What Jack London says—"I have just chanced upon my first copy of TECHNICAL WORLD MAGAZINE. There isn't anything like it. I want more, and I cannot wait for them to come, so I am sending you herewith check for which please enter my subscription and send me immediately the last two years' back numbers."

Third—

A Fine Atlas

This one is just off the presses. This is the year to obtain a new atlas. The 1916 Census has just been completed, this atlas contains the official figures, 128 pages of 4 color maps brought right down to date—every map giving the results of the most recent surveys. All railroads are shown and cannot end maps of all large cities are included. There are 11 double page maps showing in detail portions of the U. S. and Canada. Dimensions 10 1/2" x 15 1/2". Bound in stiff linen—Silver Leaf Title—printed on heavy plate paper. Sells regularly for $3.00. A splendid gift.

PRISONER HIS OWN POLICE

Takes Himself to Jail When Squire Did Not Have an Officer Handy.

There was a long, loud ring at the portals of the jail today and when Warden Colling answered it he found a stranger standing outside.

"What do you want?" inquired the warden.

"I want to come in," replied the stranger.

Collins inquired why, and in answer the man shoved a paper through the bars. Glancing at it, Collins read that it was a commitment issued by Squire Koch of Moore township for Harry Hahn.

Thinking that his visitor was a constable, Collins inquired where Hahn was.

"I'm Hahn," replied the man. "You see, Squire Koch didn't have a constable handy, so he gave me the commitment and told me to come down here myself. He knows me pretty well and wasn't afraid to trust me."

The squire lives about sixteen miles from the county seat. The complaint against Hahn was lodged by a young woman, who charged that he was untrustworthy in keeping pledges; just the opposite of the squire's idea of the man.

FORGERY OF POSTAGE STAMPS

Most Glaring Case of Kind on Record Occurred in Great Britain in 1872.

Forged postage stamps are seldom heard of. The most glaring case of stamp forgery in Great Britain occurred in 1872 and 1873, and its origin has never been discovered. In those days the minimum rate for telegraphic messages was one shilling, and the stamps that were forged were all for such amount, each being passed through the stock exchange telegraph office.

One of the principal reasons against postage stamp forgery is the keenness of philatelists. The vigilance of the collector would speedily bring to light the existence of any faulty stamps.

Of the many thousands of varieties of stamps issued only about one hundred are known to have been forged, and these specimens have usually been skillfully faked, more with the object of trapping the collector than robbing the postal authorities.—Answers.

MOON-STRUCK FISH.

Moon madness and star gazing is a bad habit of squids that gets a great many of them killed by running aground, where they wiggle-waggle, squirting out their ink bags in vain attempts to get back into the sea. Squids flirt and squirt under the rays of the beauteous moon even as dogs sit and bay in her glorious soft, tender light, and the Chinks first got wise to it, and fire set along shores of New England and the Gulf of St. Lawrence is man's moon, the imitation of the old Chink way to catch squid for bait, squid being always in demand in our northeast as bait for cod.

SOMETIMES HAPPENS THAT WAY.

"Shykes, how long have you been living in this bustling, roaring trade center?"

"Ever since I bought this house and lot for an 'attractive suburban home.' But how long have you been living on the prairie, Glizzard?"

"Ever since I invested in property there that was 'sure to become one of the great business districts of the city.'"

TOO HIGH-PRICED.

"Are those eggs to make cake for your euchre party tonight?"

"Law, no, ma! They're for the first prize. I want to take the conceit out of Lizzie Green. She had a diamond ring for the prize at her party."

"Who was that man who stopped you on the street this morning?"

"That was Dunning."

"What's his business?"

"The same as his name."

HARD TO SEE.

First Scot—What sort o' meenister has ye gotten, Georgie?

Second Scot—We seldom get a glint o' him; six days o' th' week he's envee'ble, and on the seventh he's incomprehensible.—Tit-Bits.

For Women Who Care

Of course you use an antiseptic in your family and in the care of your own person, and you want the best.

Instead of what you have been using such as liquid or tablet antiseptics or peroxide, won't you please try Paxtine, a concentrated antiseptic powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

Paxtine is more economical, more cleansing, more germicidal and more healing than anything you ever used.

Paxtine
ANTISEPTIC

In the toilet—to cleanse and whiten the teeth, remove tartar and prevent decay. To disinfect the mouth, destroy disease germs, and purify the breath. To keep artificial teeth and bridgework clean and odorless. To remove nicotine from the teeth and purify the breath after smoking. To eradicate perspiration odors by sponge bathing.

As a medicinal agent for local treatment of feminine ills where pelvic catarrh, inflammation and ulceration exist, nothing equals hot douches of Paxtine. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co. has been regularly advising their patients to use it, because of its extraordinary cleansing, healing and germicidal power. For this purpose alone Paxtine is worth its weight in gold. Also for nasal catarrh, sore throat, inflamed eyes, cuts and wounds. All druggists, 25 and 50 cents a box. Trial box and testimony of 31 women free on request. THE PAXTON TOILET CO., BOSTON, MASS.
